PARTNERS FOR HAWAII'

"The last six years have been the most active period of acquisitions in the Company's history, with $1.8 billion invested in Hawai'i. The sale of Sparks Business Center completes our strategy of concentrating all of our business activities in Hawai'i, the market we know best and where we are best able to manage and create value from our properties," said Chris Benjamin, A&B president and CEO. "Over the course of executing the strategy, we significantly improved the quality of our commercial portfolio and have built the state's largest portfolio of neighborhood and community centers. The February purchase of Laulani Village in Ewa Beach, Hokulei Village in Lihue and Pu'unene Shopping Center in Kahului from Terramar cemented that position."

Proceeds from the Sparks sale complete the funding for the $254 million Terramar acquisition. A&B financed the acquisition with $192 million of 1031 exchange proceeds from the sales of seven mainland commercial real estate properties (Concorde Commerce Center, Deer Valley Financial Center, Midstate 99 Distribution Center, Sparks Business Center, Preston Park, Royal MacArthur Center and Little Cottonwood Shopping Center) and four Hawai'i properties, and the assumption of a $62 million mortgage on Laulani Village.
